

DUNGOG

Region

LOOKOUTS

MOUNT ALLYN LOOKOUT

A spectacular lookout that offers 360 degree views of the forests, park and wilderness of the Barrington Tops.

Take the Mount Allyn Road from the Allyn River Forest Road. It can become slippery in wet weather and may be seasonally closed due to snowfalls.

source: ferndalepark.com.au

PICNIC SPOTS

With the Dungog Shire comprising the townships of Dungog, Gresford, Paterson, Vacy, Martins Creek and Clarence Town, the region offers a variety of picnic locations for travellers to enjoy.

Barrington Tops National Park and Chichester State Forest also have some fantastic picnic spots, such as;

- >> Williams River Picnic Area
- >> Lagoon Pinch Picnic Area
- >> Peach Tree Park
- >> Allyn River Forest Park

@VisitDungog
#VisitDungog

CONTACT DUNGOG SHIRE
VISITOR INFORMATION CENTRE
02 4992 2212

Caravanning &
Camping

A breath of fresh air

CARAVANNING AND CAMPING

With so much to offer those that enjoy camping and caravanning, Dungog Region has a wide range of experiences, from free bush camps to caravan parks with facilities and sites for tents or caravans.

With breath-taking National Parks and State Forests, including the World Heritage listed Barrington Tops, the Dungog Region is a camping wonderland with its pristine rivers and forests.

BARRINGTON TOPS NATIONAL PARK

For a list of camping grounds visit;
www.nationalparks.nsw.gov.au

STATE FORESTS

FRYING PAN CREEK

Located 40 min from Dungog on Frying Pan Road.

A popular camping and picnic area on the banks of the Telegerry River.

Sites for both camping and caravans.

COACHWOOD

Located opposite Frying Pan Creek camping area on the opposite bank of the Telegerry River.

A popular camping and picnic location for families.

For a list of other camping grounds visit www.forestrycorporation.com.au

TELEGERRY FOREST AREA

This spectacular forest park features an open-air museum display of historical logging machinery and separate picnic and camping areas.

Nearby is the National Parks and Wildlife Service Jerusalem Creek Walk.

The Dungog Region features some of the best caravanning and camping locations in NSW, many situated in idyllic and picturesque locations with privately operated sites as well as those operated by Forestry Corporation of NSW and Reserve Trusts.

DUNGOG SHOW GROUND

Located within the township of Dungog approximately 1 hour north of Newcastle and 2.5 hours from Sydney.

The Showground provides powered and unpowered sites and amenities, including toilets and shower. Camping is only available at the showground when events are held

EAST GRESFORD SHOWGROUND

Located 1 hour north of Newcastle and 2.5 hours north of Sydney.

Situated beside the Allyn River there are plenty of grassy locations with powered and unpowered sites available.

WILLIAMS RIVER HOLIDAY PARK

Located in Clarence Town on the Williams River just 45 min from Newcastle and 2.5 hours north of Sydney.

Powered and non-powered campsites, laundry, barbecue area and adjoining reserve where the children can play.

DUNGOG

Region